British Superbikes light up Brands Hatch...

As the sun shines down on the MCE British Superbike round at Brands Hatch, this historic racing circuit is set to be home to many epic on-track battles between riders this weekend.

Students for the Burning2Learn Junior Media Team have been selected from Anthony Roper and Sevenoaks Primary School. These young people are making the transition from primary to secondary school, and are looking at the variety of jobs at a race weekend.

Students will be taking photos and meeting people from the series, including WORX Crescent Suzuki Rider, and Burning2Learn ambassador Tommy Hill.

Tommy has agreed to give up some of his time to talk to our students and pass on some advice that helped him to succeed.

The Junior Media team will develop their teamwork ability whilst using their ICT skills, learnt in school in a working environment.

"This experience has helped me put the thoughts in my head, into words on a page." - Keith Mewes.

As a treat, all students were given the opportunity to sit on the Superbikes, like Ben, below.

Students demonstrated superb team work and great listening skills when interviewing John McGuinness.

In just two days, students enhanced their writing, spelling, listening, speaking, photography and social skills.

We couldn't believe that Kawasaki brought out their bike especially for us to photograph.
